Acknowledgements

This index was compiled under the generous auspices of the Healing Arts Center in Colville, Washington. I wish to express my grateful appreciation to Lon Hatfield, MD, PhD and George Carnie, PhD, co-founders of the Center and to their respective wives, Meredi Hatfield and Deanna Carnie, who were also an integral part in the founding and daily operations of the Center.

I deeply appreciate the Healing Arts Center's providing computer time and office space for this project, as well as their help in arranging my participation in their 18-month training program in systems constellations, taught by Victoria Schnabel of Freiburg, Germany. I honor her guidance that has re-shaped my life in so many amazing ways.

Many staff members at the Healing Arts Center were supportive and greatly assisted this process. I am especially grateful to Francesca Mason Boring, RC and Gregg D. Sharp, DO for their friendship and for their weekly facilitation of constellation sessions with members of the local community. Each time we met, my dedication to this project was reinforced, as I saw the tremendous benefit that individuals received from the work.

Knowing that an index could help advance the training and quality of understanding of constellation work, my commitment never wavered in getting such a tremendous project completed. The thoroughness of the index is based on my own wish to be able to find a particular concept easily, but also to be able to find a specially crafted phrase that was etched in my mind.

Linda Earl was a marvelous assistant in learning computer techniques, and also provided help to record the information. Local members of the weekly sessions also responded to my requests for help, and we spent hours getting notes recorded into charts to expedite computerizing the information.

These delightful friends and co-workers included Patricia Hansen, Maureen Wallace, Trisha Nelson, Meredi Hatfield, Lynn Walker, Bob Sterner, Myriah Pazereckas, Julie Ross, Paige Tibbitts, Jesse Sterner, and Lisa Fuller. I know they share my joy that our efforts are being shared with the world via the Internet.

The privilege of seeing some of the outstanding leaders of constellation work has been a very healing and enriching experience. I cherish my opportunities to be with Bert Hellinger, Hunter Beaumont, Gunthard Weber, Dietrich Weth, Heinz Stark, Dietrich Klinghardt, and Victoria Schnabel as they facilitated constellations for my own issues or for those of other participants.

My wish is that these indices provide valuable assistance to all those who read and study the Hellinger books, and that in a small way, this document can symbolize my ongoing gratitude and respect for this work.
